

The Legend of the Deepest Language

At the beginning of [NOUN] _____, humans started creating the magnificent Tower of [NOUN] _____. Not the Tower of [NOUN] _____, that's from another book. In this magnificent building the people all decided they would [VERB - PRESENT TENSE] _____ one true language. (And, my friends, it was not English!)

But the gods [VERB - PRESENT TENSE] _____ the people and all the work they were doing to create this tower and said "No more!"

So the gods split them up and sent the people of [NOUN - SAME AS SECOND NOUN] _____ all around the world. Ever since then, people speak different [NOUN] _____ around the globe and can't understand each other at all. Except for one [ADJECTIVE] _____ group of people...

These people followed a [ADJECTIVE] _____ serpent-like creature named [NAME] _____ to find a new home, and she led them to one of many seas. These people were then [VERB - PAST TENSE] _____ into what she called Babelinos!

These humans can [VERB - PRESENT TENSE] _____ underwater and speak the ancient [NOUN] _____ of Babelle. But this isn't The Little Mermaid, my friends. It was pretty great there, but some of these [ADJECTIVE] _____ people decided that they missed living on land. So they went back... [NEGATIVE GROUP ADJECTIVE] _____.

Once they left the water, they lost all memory of the [NOUN] _____ and became humans once again. And so time moved on... and on...

...and on until this very moment, when we meet our [NOUN] _____. But before we go to the [ADJECTIVE ENDING IN -EST] _____ parts of the ocean for our adventure, we must first traverse the skies. Our hero is a [JOB TITLE] _____... but not just any [JOB TITLE - SAME] _____!

She defeated a sumo wrestler in Japan... in a [VERB ENDING IN -ING] _____ contest. She can eat a ghost pepper from [NAME OF A PLACE] _____ without flinching. She can open any [NOUN] _____ of Indonesian chili jam with only her [BODY PART] _____. Her mother tongue is a language from a country in which she's never actually been. She is Mariela Pérez Treviño, [JOB TITLE] _____ extraordinaire and our hero in... Adventure in Atacama!

A [JOB TITLE - SAME AS ABOVE] _____, a [JOB TITLE] _____, and a [JOB TITLE] _____ now have the mission to find Verónica, a [VERB ENDING IN -ING] _____ marine biologist (and Mariela's mom!), in order to save the world from the "proverbial" apocalypse.
